Issue 106

www.streetjesus.org.uk

Welcome to the April edition of Street Jesus e-news. We hope you have all had a very good Easter from a reflective Good Friday considering the gruesome suffering not just physically but the mental and emotional torment of Jesus being separated from the Father. The nakedness, the shame, the mocking and injustice. The bearing of the sins of the entire world taken upon himself in an act of sacrificial love. To the joy of Easter Sunday, where the risen Lord defeats death and breaks the barrier between mankind and God so that we may come to know him personally, experience the Holy spirit and be transformed by his love and Grace.

This is the good news of the gospels which we are to proclaim to all the world. The people of the body of Christ have many and varied gifts bestowed upon them through Gods grace and whilst not all people are called to be evangelists we are all called to evangelise. This means sharing the good news with as many people as possible. This can be by simply loving people, supporting them in troubled times providing a listening ear or by a simple hug. In getting alongside people and showing Love we hope they can see something of Jesus in us. Something about us that makes them curious and want to know more about him. At some point however we will need to share and speak out about what our dear saviour means to us. How he loves, how he heals, how he transforms us for the good. In talking about Jesus there is a risk that people may become annoyed or dismissive and it can be hard not to take this personally but we should always remember that the person is really rejecting Jesus not you personally. Sharing in the workplace can be tricky these days and we need to be wise and discerning in this area.

We recently did an outreach at the Leiston bandstand. It was very very cold. We normally work from Leiston Co-op but they are reviewing their policy of hosting charity collections at their stores. The Bandstand may have not had the same level of footfall but we still had significant conversations on the day. Just after we set up We learnt about the Project 40seven foodbank and hub run by some extraordinary people who shared their life stories, gave insights into attitudes how people react when you are down and out including the response of the authorities. The foodbank had some interesting features being run more like club. We were sad to hear that some people rejected the nearby Church foodbank fearing that people would start talking to them about Jesus and try and convert them. This is a perception that is not part of the vast majority of Church food banks who simply provide food for those who are struggling financially, its to show love not a form of

Street Jesus News:

Blackmail. Due to the ongoing cost of living squeeze Food bank use remains high with many now offering money management courses to help people budget and cooking classes. With the vast increase in take-away outlets in recent times people are less inclined to cook for themselves despite it being a much cheaper option.

Our Seekers group continues to generate very interesting conversations, one of the group who has given his life to the Lord has given his first testimony in Church. What was pleasing was his understanding that he has a long way to go. We speak often about the Christian life being a journey to get ever closer to God. Being a Christian is more than just a label and being passive in that identity. It is a moving dynamic thing whereby we desire to grow closer to God and fulfil the purpose that he has for our lives. Please pray for our group, for Demnise and I who lead it and those seekers who come because they are curious about God.

On March 14th we celebrated the 10th anniversary of Street Jesus. We have done over 100 outreaches in that time in all the main towns and villages in the Suffolk coastal area and Ipswich. We have met hundreds of people. We have provided pastoral care, often just listening to peoples troubles, We have spoken to many about Jesus, to atheists agnostics, people of other faiths, humanists, and people who have a whole range of identities. There are many memorable conversations that stand out and I have been reflecting on many of them. The subjects we have spoken about have been incredibly diverse. We have sold African crafts to aid the Beehive childrens foundation (Africa). We have given out chocolates free and many now look out for us to get their little treat. We have used games and various themes to attract people. We have given out Bibles and a whole range of Christian literature. If any of you have spare bibles that you do not need or want we would gladly receive them. We gift these for free. We have done healing on the street, prayed for many people and taken prayer requests on our prayer tree.

In recent times we have been singing worship songs as we work. We have developed an approach called 'Jesus at the door' which has helped us to be more effective in sharing the gospel. In addition we share our faith online, write to the letters page of the East Anglian daily times when matters of faith arise and of course we have started the seekers group. The van has illicited much comment over the years and countless conversations and this includes the tip runs and carriage where we are able to help people who are struggling. The work is highly enjoyable and occasionally challenging but there are so many people responsible for making it all happen. We would like to thank all those who tithe to us including our Church herein Wickham Market. Your generous donations enable us to pay for our pitch fees and other costs. We would like to thank Mary Clear who heads the prayer side of our ministry and the sizable team that prays for us whilst we are out. This gives us the spiritual protection essential when meeting all kinds of people. I personally would like to thank the Street Jesus team who show great courage is speaking out their faith and the manifest gifts they bring to the the table. But most of all we give all the glory to God Whatever good we may do is down to the gifts he has given us by his grace. Thankyou all for your love and support.

Blessings Graham

Bible reading

At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>17</sup> "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. When I say to a wicked person, 'You will surely die,' and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their life, that wicked person will die for<sup>a</sup> their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. <sup>19</sup> But if you do warn the wicked person and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sin; but you will have saved yourself. Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin. The righteous things that person did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. <sup>21</sup> But if you do warn the righteous person not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself." The hand of the LORD was on me there, and he said to me, "Get up and go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you." <sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell facedown. Then the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet. He spoke to me and said: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>25</sup> And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people. <sup>26</sup> I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious people. <sup>27</sup> But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says Whoever will listen let them listen, and whoever will refuse let them refuse; for they are a rebellious people.' Ezekiel 3:16-27
